

Accessibility Statement for King's Teachers

This website (kingsteachers.kcl.ac.uk) is run by King's College London. We want as many people as possible to be able to use this website. For example, that means you should be able to:

- change colours, contrast levels and fonts
- zoom in up to 300% without the text spilling off the screen
- navigate most of the website using just a keyboard
- navigate most of the website using speech recognition software
- listen to most of the website using a screen reader (including the most recent versions of JAWS, NVDA and VoiceOver)

We've also made the website text as simple as possible to understand.

AbilityNet has advice on making your device easier to use if you have a disability.

How accessible this website is

We always recommend enabling all accessibility features on your web browser. This website is designed to work with all modern browsers, most of which include accessibility features.

What to do if you cannot access parts of this website

If you need information on this website in a different format like accessible PDF, large print, easy read, audio recording or braille:

- email kingsteachers@kcl.ac.uk
